NEWSLETTER DEADLINE: Articles for the January newsletter need to be in the church office by December 15, 2021.

PASTORS' LETTER

And the LORD will guide you continually and satisfy your desire in scorched places and make your bones strong;
and you shall be like a watered garden,
like a spring of water,
whose waters do not fail.

¹² And your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt;
you shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
you shall be called the repairer of the breach,
the restorer of streets to dwell in. Isaiah 58:11-12

What a wonderful blessing it is to know that at the end of a difficult year for our nation and the world in general, that our Lord is with us, that His eternal Word does not fail us, that he is still guiding us forward towards the promised land while sustaining and indeed sanctifying us. Every week at Saint Paul Lutheran Church the Gospel is heard and the sacraments administered. There is a consistency and steadiness here that one rarely finds in our fast paced indeed often frantic world.

Both of us are so thankful for the ministry and witness that we the people of God at Saint Paul are able to share with the world. What a blessing it is to know that over and beyond the chaos of much of modern life, our good and abiding Lord is with us to guide us along the way, that indeed Jesus incarnate, born in Bethlehem, daily walks the pilgrim way with us. Saint Paul is a generous and warm congregation rooted in a love of God and of His Word. What a blessing it is to be your pastors.

This Advent and Christmas seasons do not neglect the blessings of the Lord. Do not let materialism overwhelm you, indiscipline keeps you from the life of the church, excuses get in the way of what is a Christian celebration. Open the pages of this newsletter and see all the opportunities live and, if needed, on-line to join in this wonderful celebration of the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

May God bless you and grant you a joy filled Christmas, a blessed and joy-filled New Year, and the burning desire to share His Good News in the coming year.

Pastor Paul and Pastor Sally Gausmann

SUPPORT OUR MISSIONARY

Our missionary in the Philippines, Luke, has an interesting new project--publishing Sama folktales in English and Sanama languages. The first book, The Monkeys and The Sea Cucumber, is nicely illustrated by an 11-year old and deals with the Golden Rule. The dual purpose of these books is to promote literacy in Sama people (so they can read the Bible) and to raise money for the ministry of Luke and Ruth. Available on Amazon for $6; a copy is on display in our church library area.

CYC UPDATE

First, THANK YOU everyone for your support and prayers as we began our school year. Our school year has been going great and the children have been adjusting well. We would like to THANK Carl & Sandy Bender and Carol Moscony for providing a fun Halloween musical experience for the children. They had a blast reading and acting out: "Going on a Ghost Hunt", "The Lady who wasn't Afraid of Anything", "The Spooky Wheels on the Bus", and the "Leaf Song". We would also like to THANK Gerry Roth for building a light table for our program. The children are having so much fun building and creating on the table.

We wanted to share some upcoming events. This year for Christmas, we are transforming the Education Wing into the Nativity Story. The children are going to create the 8 different parts with the goal of them retelling the story to their family. We are inviting all CYC families on December 16 for hot cocoa and cookies and the children will be able to lead their family through the hallway and tell the Nativity Story. We will keep the story up until Christmas and invite church members to check it out when attending church.

The children of the church will be putting on a simple presentation of the Christmas story on Sun., December 19 at the 10:45 am worship service. It is called "Mary's Story". There will be rehearsal during Faith Builders on December 5 and 12. All boys and girls are invited to participate.

Daily Texts for 2022 are available for $10 each. If you would like one, please contact the office at 717-792-1650. They make a great Christmas gift!

In Advent, there is a small Christmas tree in the narthex for monetary donations to the Margaret Moul Home. We are asking anyone who would like to make a donation to place your money or check (payable to Saint Paul Lutheran Church with a note "Margaret Moul Home" in the memo line) in a Christmas stocking and hang the stocking on the tree. Thank you for your support of this worthwhile cause.
