PASTORS' LETTER

At first glance there is a certain irony that Ash Wednesday and St. Valentine's Day fall on the same date this year. Ash Wednesday is about fasting and repentance in preparation to observe Easter, while Valentine's Day is about romantic love and eating lots of chocolate.

While we don't know much with confidence about St. Valentine, tradition says that he was a Christian martyr in the third century. Supposedly God had restored the sight of the blind adopted daughter of a Roman judge when Valentine prayed for her, after which the judge destroyed all his idols and was baptized with his family. Later Valentine was arrested for continuing to evangelize, and on the way to his martyrdom he wrote a letter to the girl whose sight had been restored, signing it "Your Valentine."

I tend to be skeptical of many of these stories, but this one has led in a circuitous way to the holiday we celebrate. And Valentine should be remembered not for chocolates and chubby little cherubs shooting arrows at lovers, but for his love of Jesus that brought healing and blessing to many and finally led to his torture and death.

Lent reminds us that the Christian journey is about dying in order to find true life. It is about discovering that what is really important is not what is passing away but what remains eternally in God. The Bible tells us that in our baptism we die with Christ in order to be raised with him to new and abundant life now and forever.

Ash Wednesday comes much earlier than usual this year, because Easter is on March 31. We will gather as in past years for fellowship (which for Lutherans of course means food) followed by a brief study and service of worship. I am thinking of reflecting on the "I Am" sayings of Jesus in John's Gospel during the Wednesdays of Lent. And we will continue our Divine Drama study in the mornings at 10.

I hope you can join us on Wednesdays in Lent. And if anybody feels the need for individual confession and forgiveness during Lent or otherwise, feel free to call upon me. This was very important for Luther and Lutherans historically. For us it is not about naming all our sins but hearing God's Word of forgiveness spoken to those things that burden us with guilt or shame. I have learned from some of my teachers the value of hearing this forgiveness spoken to us by exercising what is called the Office of the Keys (see Matthew 16:19 and John 20:23).

And as a final note, we will be honored on Sunday, February 11, to host Bishop Daniel Selbo of the North American Lutheran Church, who will preach at both our services. Please make a special effort to be with us on that Sunday and spread the word to your friends. You won't be disappointed! There are reasons why Bp. Dan was overwhelmingly elected to a second term in this office.

Thank you for your partnership in the Gospel. You are all making this interim time an experience of joy and renewal for me. Please continue praying that our congregation might grow and thrive in the Spirit as we prepare to welcome our new pastor whom God will send at the time when He chooses.

SPECIAL APPEAL FOR FEBRUARY

Voice of the Martyrs

Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted-1 Timothy 3:12

In some 40 plus countries around the world, Christians face severe persecution. Saint Paul wants to help them and the premiere organization that helps in that process is Voice of the Martyrs.

VOM's Mission Statement: Serving persecuted Christians through practical and spiritual assistance and leading other members of the Body of Christ into fellowship with them.

VOM's Five Main Purposes

1. To encourage and empower Christians to fulfill the Great Commission in areas of the world where they are persecuted for sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ.
2. To provide practical relief and spiritual support to the families of Christian martyrs.
3. To equip persecuted Christians to love and win to Christ those who are opposed to the gospel in their part of the world.
4. To undertake projects of encouragement, helping believers rebuild their lives and Christian witness in countries where they have formerly suffered oppression.
5. To promote the fellowship of all believers by informing the world of the faith and courage of persecuted Christians, thereby inspiring believers to a deeper level of commitment to Christ and involvement in His Great Commission.

Please use the special envelope in your offering envelope packet to contribute.

Pray that more people in Haiti will come to recognize the Shepherd's voice, become his sheep and follow his directions. May whole families come to faith in Jesus together. Pray for the safety and well being of Andy Stump.

OUR DAILY BREAD

Our dessert for February is blueberry muffins. We need 30 dozen by 9 am on Friday, Feb. 16th. We are asking that you please individually wrap all Our Daily Bread snacks.

If you can contribute, please sign-up on the paper in the library area or call the church office.

Thank you!

 A very heartfelt thank you to all the individuals who volunteered their time and talents to decorate our nave and put up the outside nativity scene. To say the least, our nave looks so beautiful during the season and the outside nativity is a welcome sight as you enter our church's driveway. Your work has not gone unnoticed, and we appreciate all of you very much!

1 Corinthians 16:14...Let all that you do be done in love.

From: A grateful congregation

THANK YOU!!!! A BIG THANK YOU to Joyce Hall for overseeing our new picture directory. It was a BIG job with multiple steps, but well worth the wait! Thank you also to all those who assisted her throughout this process. It is a very current and comprehensive resource for all of us to reference and is much appreciated.

Sometimes prayers come in the most innocent and serene way...A few weeks ago after singing time in Sunday School, the children made a circle around me and I was in the middle of it. Ms. Ellen B. asked the children to place their hand on me and to pray with her about my upcoming knees(s) surgery. As Miss Ellen prayed in short phrases and the children repeated it after her, I was so moved at the innocence of their voices in prayer over me. I'm here to give testimony of the power and grace of God, even in our youngest person in prayer. These children are God's most beautiful gifts, whether they're singing  or praying ! All Glory to Him, Connie D.

We would like to thank the church for their support during our mom's funeral service and luncheon. Our parents always loved it here. Carol Deller, Jeff Witmer and families.

BIBLE STUDY

Our current Bible Study is Divine Drama, a 16-session study that is an overview of the Bible's "big story," as the author of the program (Pastor Harry Wendt) described it. We will resume on January 31 and continue through Lent. Like CYC, we will follow Spring Grove schools; if they delay or cancel, we will not meet. Plan on joining us on Wednesday's at 10:00 am!

MEN OF FAITH

Men of Faith will meet on Saturday, February 10, at 8:00 am for a good breakfast and continue our video progress and discussion through the Acts of the Apostles. Always room and delight to welcome new faces into the group.

Book Club

Book Club will meet Friday, February 16 at 10:30 AM in the library area. We are pleased to announce sharing the book "We Shall Live in Heaven" by Harri Haamer. It is a testimony of faith, recounting his experiences in a Soviet labor camp. Siimon Haamer, his grandson, will be visiting Saint Paul the first Sunday in May. He can answer questions and share more about the struggle to renew the Christian faith, specifically Lutheran, in Estonia.

Please join our discussion of this timely book. Read it even if you cannot participate in book club. Copies are available on Amazon and a few are in the church office to be shared.

Outreach Committee

The Outreach Committee of Saint Paul is responsible for many important events every year that involve our members and the community, sharing the gospel with our neighbors and worldwide.
